

Know When to Seek Additional Counselling

We want to know about changes in your life. In addition to the death of a Client, we also request a call or email right away if you have changes in to your:

Family, Finances, Home, Health, or Care Needs

Family

1. A child was born into the family
2. A child or beneficiary has received a diagnosis
3. A child or beneficiary started receiving government benefits
4. One of my Children is going to be a troublemaker or does not agree with my plan
5. A child is moving back home with me
6. It is time to get the kids involved; I need help

Finances

1. I'm planning to make a loan to a family member
2. I'm planning to make a large gift
3. I need a helper on my bank account
4. I'm having trouble keeping up with and making sense of my bills/mail
5. I'm concerned I cannot pay for my long-term care; I've got questions about Medicaid

Home

1. I'm moving
2. I'm selling my home
3. My main Helper is moving out of the area
4. My employer has changed

Health

1. Client is in the hospital or is having surgery
2. Client has had a serious fall
3. Client has received a critical physical diagnosis
4. Client has received (or is anticipating) a critical mental diagnosis, like dementia

Care Needs

1. I can't get out of the house – mobility issues
2. The “Well Spouse” is having trouble taking care of the “Disabled Spouse”
3. I'm hiring someone to care for me at home
4. I'm moving to an Assisted Living or Skilled Nursing Community
5. The whole family is getting on edge taking care of Mom and/or Dad. Some of us are stressed out.
6. Concern of Elder Abuse (physical, emotional, financial)